

THEATRE

On Friday the 8th of February we went with the class to the Hofplein theatre. We gathered in the classroom and we went to the bus and by bus we went to the subway. Then we got off and we went to the theatre. When we were there we had to wait a while before we were allowed to the Hall. When we were in the Hall there were already people very still on stage. And when everyone in the Hall was present the performance started.

It was about a girl (Mulan). She was not allowed by her father to decorate boys at the Spring Festival. Her father was arrested because he wanted his daughter not to bow for the black fighters. She got 3 months to learn to fight to save her father. In between we also had a pause. You could buy food and drinks. When the play was finished went home.

Elanne and Gio

Hofplein
Rotterdam